Maintenance:

- ❖ The fairgrounds sign is no longer working, so it was suggested that we contact Yesco and Westar and see how much a 3x6 sign would cost.
- ❖ There is a stakeholders meeting on Thursday January 5, at 1:00 to review that fairground bleacher project. Anyone who could attend is welcome.

- ❖ The audit is done and the information has been sent to the state.
- ❖ Mindi will schedule a time in January to review the MOU with the 4-H office and the Fair Board.
- ❖ Elyse Lopez was welcomed as our newest board member, we are excited to have her.

VIII. Unfinished Business:

- ❖ Jason Anderson is the one who runs the carcass contest for Juab County. We need to get in touch with him to see what he charges.

- ❖ Ashley Wakley is the new beef superintendent.
- ❖ Steve is working on getting a contract for the Jr. Rodeo.
- ❖ Mindi and Pete are working with the beer companies to see about getting a beer truck that is more reliable, last year there was so much waste. They are contacting Western Wyoming Beverage and also Teton Distributing.

IX. New Business:

- ❖ Entertainment was discussed
 - Mindi contacted Ninja Nation and their price was higher than last year. IT was suggested that we have them run the brackets, and timing. We are planning on running the younger kids first then the older kids. Pete motioned to accept their contract if they will provide a longer course and people to help run the event. Andy seconded that the motion passed.
- ❖ Ian Munsick costs between $75,000 and $100,000 dollars, with the bleachers being torn up it was decided that it would be better to not have a big concert. Brooke proposed the idea of having a battle of the bands. This would give local talent from around our area a chance to perform.
- ❖ Preslee Jones came to talk to us about selling grand and reserve animals at the fair. It was decided that we will leave everything how it is.
- ❖ The pig show ring was discussed and how the show ring needs to be bigger. It was decided that we need to get with the pig superintendent and get his opinion. The pig show holding pens need to be bigger.
